At long last February has arrived and we can dust off those January blues and feel that we have fully arrived in 2017! Snowdrops are starting to burst through & with them comes the comforting knowledge that no matter what happens creation continues. Phew!

In true spring fashion there is quite a lot on! On top of #fridaynightthing and All Stars we have some new things on offer. Half-Term Madness will have all sorts to keep little (and big) hands busy! Family Fun is also starting; come and enjoy faith and have fun as a family. Whatever takes your fancy the diary is full of things to try and I look forward to seeing you soon!

The January hurdle is finally over and we can see the Easter light on the Horizon. There is lots to do before now and then but we are walking towards that light in hope, faith and relief because that light will never cease. Hannah

Family Fun

A half-termly, afternoon of faith & fun. We explore a bible story, ask BIG questions and sharing our lives together. Family Fun is for all the family, with hands on activities, space for a coffee and a chat, and a play area!
