Welcome to our services on Sunday, 6th August 2017

Eighth Sunday after Trinity - Lammas: Jesus is the bread of life.

Everyone is invited to the altar in our church. If you would prefer to receive a blessing instead of the bread and wine please keep your hands down. The wine used is alcohol free and gluten free wafers are available.

After the 10am service everyone is invited to the Church Room for refreshments.

Do use the Produce Table, outside the church room after Sunday services ... bring and share.

A self-run crèche is in the church room during the month of August. There are colouring books, craft, story books and toys available. The children are invited to go out after the lighting of their candle at the beginning of the service.

Parents remain responsible for their children at all times. If you would value some time out at any point, or would like to use the facilities, please make your way through the doors at the back of the church.

The Bible readings for 10am are: New Testament: 2 Corinthians 9: 6-12; Gospel: John 6: 25-35. Eucharistic Prayer A

12noon Baptism of Daisy Elizabeth Whittle.

6.30pm Evensong (1662).

Please pray ....

... for the people of Syria & Yemen especially those coping with an outbreak of cholera; for those who are fleeing violence and terror; for all who are living as refugees

... for all trying to protect the innocent and vulnerable both in this country and abroad

... for farmers and small-holders, gathering the first-fruits of the harvest at this time
